Spiritual Affirmations

The big book of affirmations from spiritual leaders

Chapter 1:

About Spiritual Affirmations

Synopsis

The Higher Power gives us energy (spiritual energy) each day so that we may be co-creators with him. Utilizing this power to produce positive shifts in our world is precisely what we are intended to be exercising, and giving spiritual affirmations is one way to accomplish it.

The Basics

Important...

We have been going against The Higher Power's will by letting our negative thoughts and speech produce our damaging worlds (thoughts have power as well!). This is basically a misuse of the power he gave us and, by cosmic law, it has to end up in the return of damaging karma.

The great news?

We may make a different decision! We may utilize our freewill to arrive at a decision that does us good rather than harm. Quite merely, we may start to affirm the opposite.

So...let's begin by coming to grips with the fundamental formula (and it truly is fundamental!)

OK, we're kicking off with calling on the name of The Higher Power.

That's simple, right? The Higher Power is The Higher Power.

Well, yes and no. The Higher Power is The Higher Power, most unquestionably, however he likewise has many, many other names. So you might technically use any of them, to call on him. In the Bible: I AM THAT I AM is commonly written in capitals, which I trust is to distinguish it from a common sentence. This is the complete version, but we may likewise utilize merely 'I AM'.

Yes, 'I AM' is among the names of The Higher Power. So if you say something like 'I am hungry' or 'I am tired' you could actually be drawing on the power of The Higher Power to affirm that state of being hungry or tired.

As luck would have it, the opposite is true as well. 'I AM healthy', 'I AM joyous' - these are really simple favorable affirmations. They're likewise spiritual affirmations as they are utilizing the name of The Higher Power. Not too hard, right?

This is the fun part where we may be truly creative. Think of what you need in your life right now. It might be literally anything! The key is to turn what you wish to accomplish into a positive 'here and now' statement. Here are a few really random examples to get your brain going.

- I am totally at peace
- I am loving my brother/sister/parents
- I am getting everything I need
- I am finishing this assignment to the best of my ability
- I am willing to change
- I am an awesome cook
- I decide to get up on time every morning

- I am thankful

And for the ultimate all-purpose spiritual affirmation?

"I AM Victory!"

When you've produced some great affirmations for yourself or decide to use the ones in this book, repeat them again and again, as many times as you may, as frequently as you may. The more you state them, the more power you are giving them, and therefore the more chance they have of manifesting in your world.

Say them with confidence and trust what you're stating!

If you will, try to visualize (see in your mind's eye) what it is you're talking about. If you're affirming that you are a good cook, then see yourself cooking marvelous dishes and everybody loving them.

Occasionally you'll see instant results. More frequently though you're shifting compound years of negativeness and you just have to continue hacking away at the layers, noting a little difference. You'll get there, I promise.

Chapter 2:

Spiritual Quotes

Synopsis

Spiritual quotes can inspire you. Lets' have a look at a few.

Quotes

- " Never put anyone out of your heart... " ~Neem Karoli Baba
- People will do anything, no matter how absurd, in order to avoid facing their own soul.~Carl Gustav Jung
- Acquire the courage to believe in yourself. Many of the things that you have been taught were at one time the radical ideas of individuals who had the courage to believe what their own hearts and minds told them was true, rather than accept the common beliefs of their day. ~ Ching Ning Chu
- "When I despair, I remember that all through history the way of truth and love have always won. There have been tyrants, and murderers, and for a time they can seem invincible, but in the end they always fall. Think of it...always." ~Mahatma Gandhi
- Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourself treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. ~Jesus
- There's music in the sighing of a reed; There's music in the gushing of a rill; There's music in all things, if men had ears: Their earth is but an echo of the spheres.~Lord Byron

- Do everything with a mind that lets go. Don't accept praise or gain or anything else. If you let go a little you will have a little peace; if you let go a lot you will have a lot of peace; if you let go completely you will have complete peace. ~Ajahn Chah
- You must understand the whole of life, not just one little part of it. That is why you must read, that is why you must look at the skies, that is why you must sing and dance, and write poems, and suffer, and understand, for all that is life. ~J.Krishnamurti
- Here I sit between my brother the mountain and my sister the sea. We three are one in loneliness, and the love that binds us together is deep and strong and strange.~Kahlil Gibran
- Outside ideas of right doing and wrong doing there is a field. I'll meet you there.~ Rumi
- Let your life lightly dance on the edges of time like dew on the tip of a leaf. ~Rabindranath Tagore
- Love expects no reward. Love knows no fear. Love Divine gives - does not demand. Love thinks no evil; imputes no motive. To Love is to share and serve. ~Sivananda
- My sun sets to rise again. ~Robert Browning
- If we could read the secret history of our enemies we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility.~ Longfellow

- When we are face to face with truth, the point of view of Krishna, Buddha, Christ, or any other Prophet, is the same. When we look at life from the top of the mountain, there is no limitation; there is the same immensity. ~Hazrat Inayat Khan
- I honor those who try to rid themselves of any lying, who empty the self and have only clear being there.~Rumi
- My atheism, like that of Spinoza, is true piety towards the universe and denies only gods fashioned by men in their own image to be servants of their human interests.~George Santayana
- Do not keep the alabaster box of your friendship sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The kind of things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go.~George W. Childs
- People are where they are because that's exactly where they really want to be...whether they'll admit that or not. ~Earl Nightingale
- There will come a time when you believe everything is finished. That will be the beginning.~Louis L'Amour

- Come, fill the Cup, and in the Fire of Spring The Winter
Garment of Repentance fling: The Bird of Time has but a little way To fly--and Lo! the Bird is on the Wing. ~Omar Khayym
- Life and death: they are one, at core entwined. Who understands himself from his own strain presses himself into a drop of wine and throws himself into the purest flame. ~Rainer
Maria Rilke
- We shall not cease from exploring, And the end of our exploring Will be to arrive where we started. And know the place for the first time. ~T.S. Eliot
- For one human being to love another: that is perhaps the most difficult of all our tasks, the ultimate, the last test and proof, the work for which all other work is but preparation. ~Rainer Maria
Rilke
- Go to the truth beyond the mind. Love is the bridge. ~Stephen
Levine
- People deal too much with the negative, with what is wrong...
Why not try and see positive things, to just touch those things and make them bloom? ~Thich Nhat Hanh
- No man, for any considerable period, can wear one face to himself, and another to the multitude, without finally getting bewildered as to which may be true. ~Nathaniel Hawthorne

- We carry within us the wonders we seek without us. ~Sir Thomas Browne
- What is to give light must endure burning. ~Viktor Frankl
- The less you open your heart to others, the more your heart suffers.~Deepak Chopra
- Keep me away from the wisdom which does not cry, the philosophy which does not laugh and the greatness which does not bow before children.~Kahlil Gibran
- This is love: to fly toward a secret sky, to cause a hundred veils to fall each moment. First to let go of life. Finally, to take a step without feet.~Rumi
- What the caterpillar calls the end of the world, the master calls a butterfly.~Richard Bach
- Teachers open the door, but you must enter by yourself.
~Chinese Proverb
- If you are pained by external things, it is not they that disturb you, but your own judgment of them. And it is in your power to wipe out that judgment now. ~Marcus Aurelius
- God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." ~Exodus 3:14
- If you want others to be happy, practice compassion. If you want to be happy, practice compassion." ~The 14th Dalai Lama

- The same stream of life that runs through the world runs through my veins night and day in rhythmic measure. It is the same life that shoots in joy through the dust of the earth into numberless waves of flowers." ~Rabindranath Tagore

Chapter 5:

Conclusion

Words concentrated with earnestness, conviction, faith, and intuition are like extremely explosive vibration tools, which, when set off, shatter troubles and produce the change wanted.

Every thought of depression or being happy, crossness or calm, cuts subtle channels in the brain cells and strengthens the tendencies towards illness or well-being.

Stubborn mental or physical diseases constantly have a deep root in the subconscious. Sickness might be cured by drawing out its hidden roots. That's why all affirmations of the witting brain ought to be impressive enough to penetrate the subconsciousness, which in turn mechanically influences the conscious brain.

Firm conscious affirmations thusly react on the brain and body with the medium of the subconsciousness. Still firmer affirmations reach not merely the subconscious mind however likewise the superconscious brain.

Declarations of reality ought to be practiced willingly, freely, intelligently, and devotionally. One's care ought to not be allowed to slowdown. Drifting attention ought to be brought around again and again like a spoiled youngster and repeatedly and patiently trained to do its given task.

Patience and thoughtful, intelligent repetition work wonders. Affirmations for healing chronic mental or bodily afflictions ought to be repeated frequently, deeply and continuously, till they get to be part of one's sound intuitional convictions.

Select your affirmation and repeat all of it, first loudly, then quietly and more slowly, till your voice gets to be a whisper. Then bit by bit affirm it mentally merely, without moving the mouth, till you feel that you've accomplished deep, unbroken concentration not unconsciousness, however a fundamental continuity of continuous thought.

If you carry on with your mental affirmation, and go still deeper, you'll feel a sense of increasing joyfulness and peace. During the state of rich concentration, your affirmation will blend with the subconscious mind, to come back later strengthened with power to influence your conscious brain.

During the time that you have ever-increasing peace, your affirmation gets deeper, into the superconscious realm, to return later with limitless power to influence your conscious brain and likewise to fulfill your desires.

How to...

- Select an affirmation for your certain need.
- Sit with back erect.

- Shut your eyes and gently center your gaze and concentrate at the point between the brows.
- Then, take a deep breath and exhale it, 3 times. Relax the body and keep it still....
- Cast aside tension, distrust, and worry....
- Repeat all of the affirmations
- Then gradually affirm it mentally
- If you continue with your mental affirmation, and go still deeper, you'll feel a sense of increasing joy and peacefulness..
