INTRODUCTION

Amulets are objects, words or even paintings that can protect their owners and can change their luck for the better. Amulets for protection date back thousands of years ago and have been used since early civilization.

Many magical amulets originated from the ancient Holy Land and were used by Jews, Christians and Muslims as healing and shielding power in their daily lives. The most legendary and renowned amulet of all times – the four-pointed Crucifix – traces its roots from the Holy Land as well. Aside from its religious significance, it is also acknowledged as a defense against demonic influence.

Holy Land inhabitants wore amulet clothing as a safeguard against illness and disease; others carried golden talismans as a means of deflecting danger and evil spirits. Some hung shiny amulets above their beds to protect their dreams. There were also those who went to such length as having their house walls painted by religious elders with magical murals and symbols.

Ancient amulets from the Holy Land emphasize the divine powers of Biblical texts, names, shapes and colors. When these elements are combined in unique harmony, they create a string of powers that are believed to protect and transform a man's fortune according to his own desire. Favorite among amulet makers was the use of names of angels and Bible Psalms which convey message of protection and good fortune. These magic words were written or drawn on heavy parchment and given to people in despair.

Today, many scholars and scientists profess that ancient amulets can bring wonderful changes in a person's life. Fortified with strong belief, ancient charms can enhance a person's self-confidence, improve his overall performance and change his fortune forever.

In this day of internet and mobile phones, many individuals are doubtful of the benefits amulets can bring. But little do they know that in their everyday life, they use some form of amulet or lucky charm to enhance their chance of success. How about the lucky coin you don't leave home without? Or the lucky shirt you wear when you go out with friends to play basketball every week? There is always an item or article we keep which we consider to bring us luck or good fortune.

My name is John Shropshire, and I am one of the lucky Co-founders of Amuletico.com, the first endeavor to combine ancient traditions with modern technology. Amuletico ventures to transform biblical golden amulets from the Holy Land into powerful digital Amulets, good luck Charms and protective tools. These can then be easily downloaded to any mobile device, desktop or laptop and be carried by its owner to any place, at any time, to protect him.

Together with Amuletico, we aim to do our share in preserving our planet. As continuous gold mining pollutes our world with endless toxic waste, Amuletico provides the same magical material through its golden amulets in digital design, thus remaining clean and green and environment-friendly.

The following e-Book provides digitized ancient amulets in five powerful categories:

- 1. Career & Business Protection
- 2. Family & House Protection
- 3. Health & Personal Protection
- 4. Love & Relationship Protection
- 5. Mother & Child Protection

At the end of each Chapter, I urge you to view our Amulet videos and download the high quality images to your laptop, iPad or mobile phone, or even print them out, and believe...

...if used wisely and consistently, they can change your fortune!

Career &

Business Protection

Every once in a while, we all get malicious grudges, hostile remarks, or even dagger looks from envious officemates, managers, or business competitors. These can sometimes make our stomachs churn or even make us perspire unexplainably.

When we experience something unfortunate after these incidents, we can't help but utter words like, "I surely screwed up because of him!"; "If she just didn't say that!"; "He really put a spell on me!"

Traditions and beliefs of many cultures consider that a little evil gossip or a mean look can do a person harm or endanger his property, his career and his livelihood. This is because the wicked rumor, rancor, remark, or just “the look” stem from emotions of envy, jealousy or other negative feelings.

One ancient practical method of safeguarding oneself against evil eyes and spirits is to use an assortment of protective amulets and lucky charms. These tools are employed to ward off envious feelings surrounding us and to fight against gossip and buildup of bad reputation. Simultaneously, amulets and charms increase our self-confidence and improve our performance resulting to a strong and productive professional career.

The following digitized ancient amulets can be used in combating jealousy, gossip and the accumulation of bad reputes. Not only will these talismans boost your self-confidence, it will also bring about a change of luck and good fortune.

THE HOLY RIDER

The Holy Rider was developed from ancient archeological findings, dating over a thousand years ago. It is an image of a brave warrior defeating his enemy and this symbolizes success and victory in many cultures. In this digitized version, it has even deeper powers. The engraved Greek text says “Solomon” and “Seal of God”. Historians believe that the King Solomon is the Holy Rider who slew the evil female dragon.

King Solomon, the son of King David, is said to have been given wisdom, knowledge and a unique ability to understand the universe.

“Behold I have given you a wise and understanding heart; there has been none like you before you, nor after you shall any arise like you.” (Kings 1, 3, 12)

The Holy Rider amulet, very much like the wondrous signet Ring which Solomon received from heaven and known as King Solomon's Seal, symbolizes wisdom, grace, strength and beauty.

Use the Holy Rider to attract wisdom and to ensure success in any professional undertaking, be it in business or career. The Holy Rider will take you to a magical journey to glory and victory!

SWORD OF ANGELS

The Sword of Angels amulet was developed according to ancient archeological findings of unknown date. The amulet sword is inscribed with the names of four protective angels of the Bible: Azriel, Shmariel, Tsadkiel, and Yehadriel. Written in ancient Hebrew, these names are used to ward off danger and protect one's profession and livelihood.

Use the Sword of Angels to carve your professional path in life—with no fear and with conviction. Employ this amulet to protect your career, business and livelihood against evil competitors, dangerous rivals or malicious officemates. It will help ensure professional success wherever you go.

HAND OF FORTUNE

The Hand of Fortune was developed from personally hand-written amulets etched hundreds of years ago. The amulet takes its roots from the famous “Hamsa”, a well known and robust symbol of strength and protection, connected to angelic powers in all major religions: Christianity, Judaism and Islam. It reveals the ancient power of combining body and words into one entity.

During ancient times, people used the palm of the hand as the embodiment of the invisible God, making it a powerful tool of protection against the evil eye. The text in this amulet includes a powerful order of ancient Hebrew letters, the different names of God, as well as a magical charm that ensures “Fortune Forever”.

Use the Hand of Fortune to protect your career and business from evil rivals. It will bring success in your profession and will ensure good fortune. The amulet will also boost your inner strength, improve your performance and empower you with courage in tackling life’s challenges.

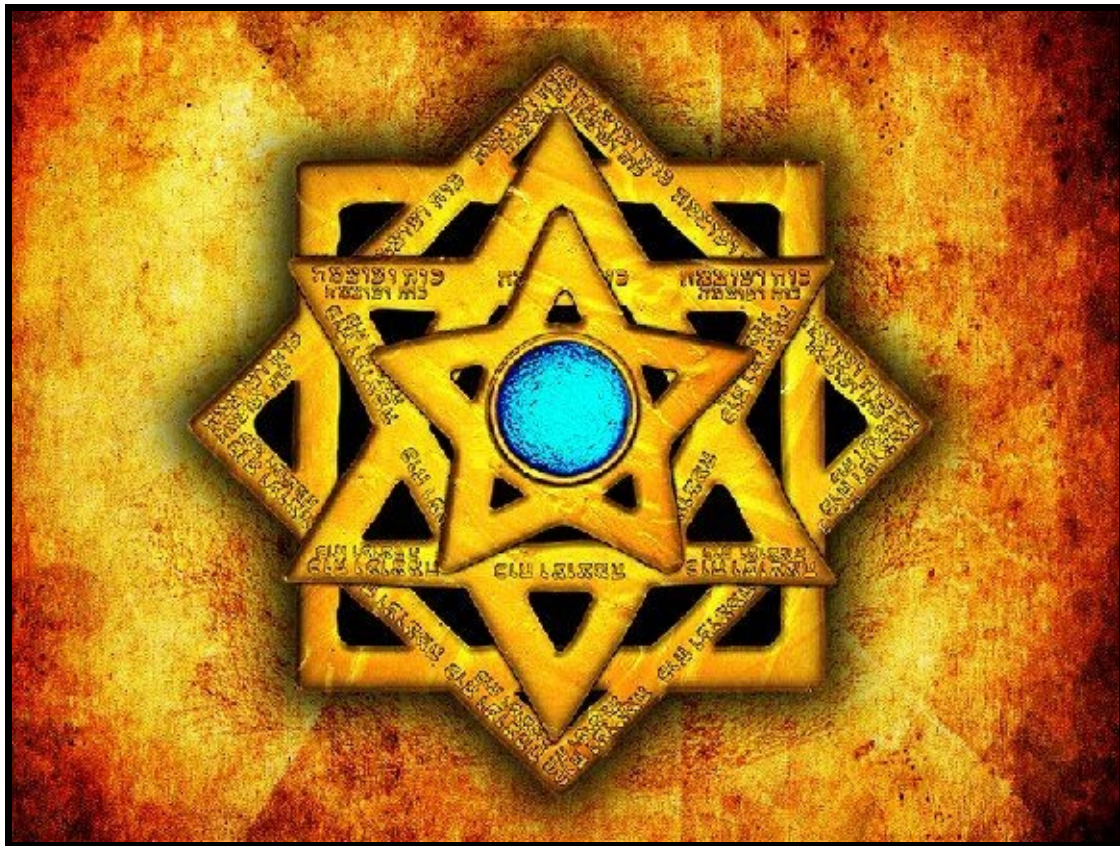

SHIELD MASTER

The magnificent Shield Master is a fusion of the three ancient Biblical shields: Abraham's Shield, built out of two squares; King David's Shield, known also as the “Star of David”; and the five-pointed star known as King Solomon's Shield.

According to the Holy Land tradition, the combination of these three shields embodies the unique powers of protection, success and healthy life. The secret of the Shield Master lies in its ability to balance the inner qualities of a person, thus increasing strength, enhancing personal capability, and improving performance. The inscribed text reveals the ancient Hebrew word “עוֹצֵמָה”, which translates to “power”.

Use the Shield Master to increase your inner strength, boost your competence, uplift your self-confidence and improve your overall performance.

DESTINY COMMANDER

The Destiny Commander was developed from an ancient impression seal, dating back almost 3000 years ago. It shows eagles and lions, which are representations of strength, victory and protection. The image of lions is also used extensively in fighting battles and deflecting evil spirits.

At the upper part of the amulet is the biblical word “Lachash”, inscribed in ancient Semitic alphabet. Relating to amulet technologies, the word makes known to all that the bearer of the amulet is a powerful man who holds the strength and capabilities to mold his own destiny.

Use the Destiny Commander to protect your job, career or business. It will repel evil rivals while you take control of and command your own professional destiny in life as you desire it to be.

FAMILY & HOUSE PROTECTION

“May this home, with this amulet in it, be safe and guarded and redeemed, rescued and freed and saved by the Lord.”

In ancient times, long before careers and jobs were so high up on the list of priorities of the common man, the dearest and most important assets of a man were his family and home. To protect these prized possessions, amulet traditions and biblical charms were developed. The holy amulets provide safeguard against natural dangers and hazards such as fire or disease, theft and violence, as well as shield against supernatural threats like satanic fiends.

Amulets developed for the protection of the family and house contain holy names and magical algorithms written in ancient alphabet. These are mainly used to deflect evil spirits and ward off wicked people who surround us in our daily lives by acting as guardians who protect our homes and families. Among the symbols are Hands of Protection, Stars of Strength, Angelic Figures and much more.

THE PROPHET

The Prophet was developed from ancient amulet writings and drawings, mainly for the purpose of protecting a growing family. It portrays the traditional empty chair left for Elijah the Prophet (9th century BC). Elijah is the biblical hero who raised the dead and brought fire down from the sky. The fish hanging above the empty chair represents the blessing of fertility, prosperity and wealth for the family. The text above the chair is in ancient Hebrew and translates: “This is Your Chair, Elijah the Prophet”. In the New Testament, Jesus Christ is compared to Elijah, and in some occasions, Jesus is even thought to be the manifestation of Elijah the Prophet, rendering the amulet with more significance.

Use The Prophet amulet to protect your growing family and to ensure their healthy and prosperous development.

EYE FENDER

The Eye Fender was developed from ancient archeological findings, dating back almost 3000 years ago. The plain circular pictograph represents the powerful iris of a deflecting eye. In ancient times, this image was painted and inscribed on walls, houses, and even large ships as a measure of security and protection.

The Eye Fender applies the simple theory of deflection, and is used to divert perplexing dangers, threats, jealousy, negative feelings and evil spirits in our immediate vicinity.

Use the Eye Fender amulet to protect your family and home from precarious affliction and terrifying misfortunes.

HAND OF COURAGE

The Hand of Courage, like the Hand of Fortune, was developed from the mighty “Hamsa”, the famous symbol of strength and protection. The inscribed text on the Hand of Courage contains three holy names which are known for their ability to fight and protect against misfortunes: “Tzamarkhad”, “Taftafiah” and “Shaddai”. The holy names are also believed to bestow fertility and ensure the continuity of the family.

The Hand of Courage focuses on safeguarding your home and family as it delivers an enormous flow of confidence and inner power to sustain and protect your loved ones.

Use the Hand of Courage to protect your family and home from malicious intent and needless hardship, and to provide you with a vibrant and prosperous family life.

FOREVER SEALED

Forever Sealed was developed from ancient archeological findings, dating back over a thousand years ago. Similar to biblical amulets which aim to fend off the powers of darkness, it portrays an evil demon entrapped in a holy circle of amulet text. The holy circle is a replica of God's name, Jehovah, written in ancient Hebrew. It is believed that in invoking God's divine name, evil spirits are fended off and are contained so that they will cause no more harm. Thus, the amulet possesses magical energy to drive back malevolent beings.

Use the Forever Sealed amulet to protect your family and home from daily hazards, wicked threats and spiteful intentions. The amulet will bunch up your clouds of fears and troubles and seal them forever.

HEALTH & PERSONAL PROTECTION

Making certain of one's physical and mental health has always been one of man's foremost concerns and worries. People will do everything to prevent sickness, to stay away from diseases, and to repulse weakness or anxiety.

We take vitamins and supplements, exercise regularly, and live a healthy lifestyle to ensure that we are in tiptop shape. We consult with doctors and experts when we feel anxious, go into depression or suffer from panic attacks. In some extreme cases, we even enter rehabilitation centers and clinics to recover from drug and alcohol addictions. Painful memories and recurring nightmares are dealt with through medications, consultations and counseling.

Among the many options we have in maintaining a high quality of life is the use of ancient amulet techniques. The world of amulets and charms provides an endless selection of jewelry and apparel. Worn on the body, they offer a powerful protective response to people's fear of illness, of aging and of other misfortune that may affect their personal lives.

Based on biblical Holy Land traditions, the following amulets are designed with images, shapes, colors and texts whose aim is to fend off maladies and disease, while keeping your body physically and mentally strong. They do so by strengthening your inner powers and self-confidence, thus strengthening your immune system. This vast improvement in your health condition will add more power to your self-belief and will lead to an even more productive personal life.

DANGER STRIKER

The Danger Striker was developed from ancient amulet pendants, dating almost 2000 years ago. The magical amulet depicts three powerful creatures fighting one evil eye. An emblazoned Greek holy text glows from above, saying: “One God”. The first creature on the left, the Lion, symbolizes strength and protection. It fearlessly fights off evil spirits and wicked hazards.

The second creature in the middle, the Snake, symbolizes healing powers and eternity. In the Bible, it is mentioned how God healed people by just making them look and stare at a snake. The skin-shedding process of the Snake symbolizes infinity and renewal. The third creature on the right, the Scorpion, is renowned for its lethal venom and is said to be a fierce warrior against health risks and wicked forces.

Use the Danger Strikers to protect your personal health and guard yourself against the threats of ill-health and misfortune.

KNOT OF LIFE

The Knot of Life was developed from King Solomon's famous Symbol of Eternity which is also valued as a secular symbol of prestige and beauty. The Knot of Life has no defined beginning and end, and therefore represents immortality.

Many scholars associate the magical knot to a small passage in the Bible found in I Kings 6:18 and I Kings 7:24 where the Hebrew word “peka'im” (פקעים) is used and is translated to “knobs”, or “knots”. The golden Knot of Life amulet is inscribed with a powerful biblical blessing in ancient Hebrew, saying “Bless us with long lives”.

Use the Knot of Life amulet to guarantee your well-being at all times, and to deflect health threats that can endanger your body and mind. Use the powers of this amulet to chart for yourself a long and healthy life ahead.

ETERNITY SNAKE

The Eternity Snake amulet was developed from ancient pendants to reveal the positive and protective powers of the snake. As previously cited from the Holy Bible, God punishes sinners by using snakes, but He also heals them with the same creature. The sinners only have to look at the snake in order to get cured completely. Magical traditions likewise reveal that the snake's act of shedding its skin embodies the powers of eternity and renewal.

The colorful amulet depicts a blue snake—a color that by itself, according to many scholars, provides a powerful protection against evil spirits. The ancient Hebrew texts inscribed on the amulet are names of three protective angels: Sanoi, Sansanoi and Samangalf. According to Jewish mythology, the female demon Lilith will never attack anything with the names of the protective angels. Legend has it that Lilith was created from the same earth as Adam (Book of Genesis) and was his first wife. Following a violent struggle, she left Adam and never returned to the Garden of Eden. Instead, Lilith became a feared demon of the night who made love with sleeping men and strangled pregnant women.

Use the Eternity Snake amulet to intensify self-confidence through infusion of eternal biblical powers. This will result to an even more robust immune system which will make certain a healthy prosperous life.

STING OF HEALTH

The Sting of Health was developed from ancient archeological findings in Jerusalem dating over 2000 years ago. It displays a golden scorpion, a potent creature in fighting evil powers and a firm protector against illness and disease. Its deadly sting is said to scare away germs, viruses and deadly infections.

Inscribed in this amulet are the ancient Hebrew texts “Shmira” and “Briut”, which translate to “Protection” and “Health”.

Use the Sting of Health to boost your immune system and to sustain your personal health. It will also safeguard you in your daily routine and improve your total performance.

EAGLE GLIDE

The Eagle Glide was developed from ancient pendants showing two elements: a powerful eagle in its majestic flight and a holy hand from above. According to ancient traditions, the eagle symbolizes strength, victory and protection, while the Hand complements these same qualities and enriches them with angelic powers.

The Hebrew text inscribed on the Eagle's Glide, "בן פורת יוסף", which read as "Ben Porat Yosef", is part of a well-known psalm from the Bible (Genesis 49:22), where Jacob blesses his son Joseph right before he passes away. The first word in the psalm, "Ben", means "son", describing Joseph as the favorite child of Jacob. This ensured Joseph a favorable protection from the Lord as well. Joseph's unique character in the Bible symbolizes a person who is untouched by evil spirits.

The simple blessing has several meanings and powers which are used today in various ways. In this specific amulet, the biblical psalm is used as a form of health protection for fighting evil spirits which cause illness and disease. In the next chapter, the second part of this famous ancient psalm pertaining to beauty and charm will be revealed.

Use the Eagle Glide amulet to strengthen your inner powers and protect your physical and mental fortitude.

LOVE & RELATIONSHIP PROTECTION

In contrast to the good old times when marriage was regarded as a solid foundation of devotion and respect, love and family structure is falling apart more rapidly all over the world. This downward spiral in relationship is more pronounced in these modern times. More and more people are searching endlessly for that “special one”, joining dating games and going to blind dates just to find that true protective relationship.

Even in the ancient times, this need for a genuine personal connection was already present. People of the olden days relied on amulets to bring them security and devotion from another person. Talismans were used to attract authentic love into lonely lives, to strengthen decaying relationships and to protect them from falling apart.

From archeological finding of Holy Land’s ancient amulets, we have created digital amulets that can protect relationships from vicious gossip and evil influences, and strengthen the connecting bond between couples. Our unique amulets are designed to prevent and block separations, hinder break-ups and divorce, while ensuring the build-up of true Love Structures. For the single men and women among us, there are amulets designed specifically to attract new love and to obtain it wisely.

JOSEPH'S LOVE

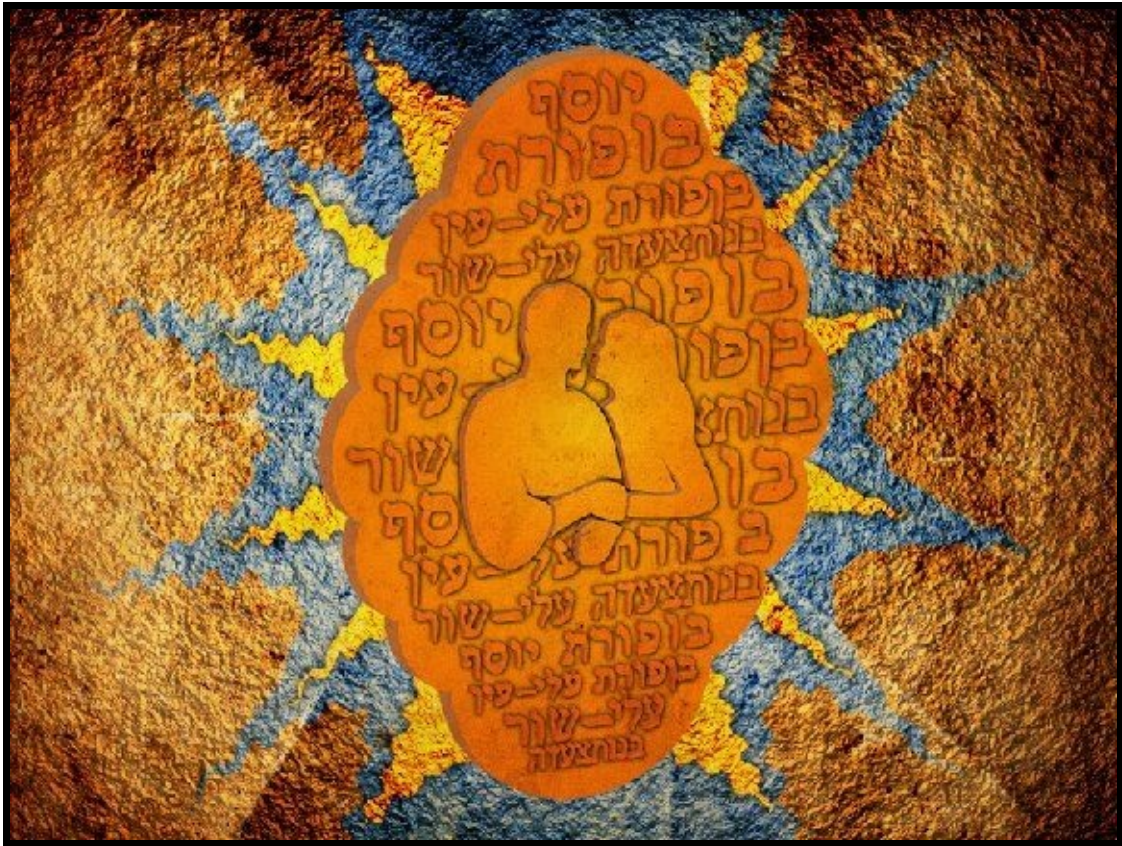

Joseph's Love was developed from archeological findings of ancient amulets which were used to protect marriages throughout the Holy Land. The amulet portrays a young loving couple who just got married and was fervently anticipating the beginning of a long life together.

As mentioned in the previous chapter, the amulet is also inscribed with the bible text from Genesis 49:22 with addition of some other phrases. It reads as “Ben Porat Yosef, Ben porat alei ayin, banot tzoaddot alei-shur”. Translated, it means “Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a spring, girls marched high to gaze”. Historians explain that the biblical text is in reference to Joseph's act of saving his mother Rachel from the villain Esau by hiding her face. As a reward, Joseph's appearance had been admired by anyone who ever had taken a glimpse of him. This gift is further enhanced by protection from jealousy and envy.

“Girls marched high to gaze...” describes how the women of Egypt used to journey long distances and scale heights just to stare at Joseph's beautiful face.

In ancient Hebrew, the word for “spring” is similar to the word “eye”, which made the scholars to conclude that the Evil Eye could not harm Joseph or any of his descendants. People use this biblical psalm to attract fertility, prosperity and to protect their relationships from evil forces and envious influences.

Use Joseph's Love amulet to entice new and genuine love into your life, or to protect and guard your current flame and ensure a healthy, stable relationship.

RING OF FAITH

The Ring of Faith was developed from an ancient ring found in the Holy Land portraying the protective angels Tzamarkhad and Taftafiah. The divine angels are inscribed in ancient biblical Hebrew (צמרחד וטפתיה), and are designed as a shield against the female demon Lilith, known for her passion of destroying love and relationship by having sexual encounters with sleeping men.

The drawing of a lion symbolizes the strength and power of love which the creature uses to protect its loved ones against evil spirits and hateful rivals.

Use the Ring of Faith to guard your love bond from external envious forces, damaging gossip and negative influences, and to rebuild your crumbling relationship.

HAND OF FISH

Like its brother amulets, the Hand of Fish was developed from the mighty “Hamsa”, the robust symbol of power and protection. This portrayal of an angelic hand contains the same biblical psalm out of Joseph’s Blessing, “Ben Porat Yosef, Ben porat alei ayin”, but is used in a slightly different context.

In this amulet, the Hand and the biblical psalm are combined with an ancient drawing of a fish, which represents prosperity, wealth and especially the blessing of fertility, as mentioned in the Bible:

“Be fertile and increase, fill the waters in the seas” (Genesis 1:22)

Use the Hand of Fish amulet to improve your love bond, protect your productive relationship, and ensure a healthy and fertile loving relationship.

BIBLICAL LOVE

Biblical Love was developed from an ancient written amulet, given thousands of years ago to a young couple who was most likely in need of strengthening their love bond. The amulet includes a blessing charm in biblical Hebrew, which says:

“By the name of God, who made Joseph a successful man, peace and love will flourish in your home”.

In addition to this powerful blessing, the names of the four archangels, Raphael, Gabriel, Michael and Ariel, are inscribed on both sides of the Biblical Love amulet. The archangels represent the powers of guidance, abundance, protection, happiness and much more. Raphael's name, for example, is derived from the Hebrew word "rapha", which means "healing".

Use the Biblical Love amulet to empower your love bond, to build-up a new solid relationship or to strengthen an existing one and to protect it from jealousy and spiteful forces.

PROTECTIVE ANGLES

The Protective Angels amulet was developed based on patterns from ancient pendants from unknown date. The amulet shows a unique drawing of the three protective angels, Sanoi, Sansanoi and Samangalf, with their Hebrew biblical names imprinted on their images. According to mystical legends, the wicked spirits and envious forces will never attack a place where the names of the protective angels are inscribed.

Use the Protective Angels amulet to bounce off destructive influences and evil spirits, to protect your loved ones, and to ensure a secure and healthy relationship.

LETTERS OF SOUL

The Letters of Soul amulet was derived from an ancient golden pendant inscribed with the divine 42-letter Name of God. Its origin has never been established, but some scholars speculate that the 42-Letter Name of God evolved from a 2nd century prayer called “Ana Bekoah”. Parts of the ancient prayer say:

“We beg thee, with the power and greatness of your right arm, release our bounded fate... Accept your people's prayer, empower and purify us... Please, mighty one, for those who seek your uniqueness, guard them as the pupil of the eye... Mighty One, Unique and Great One, accept our prayer and hear our cries and screams, as we cry to you, the one and only who knows our mysterious and hidden thoughts... Whose glorious kingdom is forever and ever...”

During ancient times, the 42-Letter Name of God was used as a powerful amulet and charm for protection and enticement of good fortune. Inscribed in Hebrew, the 42-

Letter Name has no known pronunciation.

In this context, this inspirational 42-letter Name amulet is primarily used to attract a person who can be a good husband or wife, and to protect a marital relationship.

Use the Letters of Soul amulet to attract a long-lasting true love into your life, and to protect an already rocky relationship from further damage brought about by malicious threats and envious forces.

MOTHER & CHILD PROTECTION

The Protection of Mother and Child is one the most powerful sets from the collection of the digitized ancient amulets from the Holy Land. This pool is especially designed to give support to the user during the strenuous stages of pregnancy, childbirth, and upbringing of children.

Every father or mother possesses the basic deep-rooted human fear for the survival and well-being of their beloved children. Parents always worry for their kids, from pregnancy to birth and up to growth to maturity. It is one of the biggest sources of fear and distress for anyone who has a family.

We have developed a unique set of digital Amulets and Charms based on the ancient amulet principles of the Holy Land. These are designed specifically for the purpose of easing those fears and ensuring peace and protection for a mother and her child.

These powerful amulets infuse mothers with confidence and strength to flourish through the tough and harsh stages of life. These digital amulets can fortify your inner powers and thus fend off evil influences and misfortunes.

THE DREAMER

The Dreamer was developed from the well-known Biblical tale of “Jacob’s Ladder Dream” (Book of Genesis, 28:11–19). Jacob was the son of Isaac and Rebecca and the grandson of Abraham and Sara. The biblical amulet shows Jacob lying on the ground deeply asleep as he dreams of the Angels of God flying up and down the Holy Ladder.

According to biblical scholars, the Ladder Dream creates a bridge between Heaven and Earth, and between Man and God. Only God’s Angels can climb up or down the Holy Ladder. These angels protect and guard the dreamer from dangers and misfortunes.

Use The Dreamer amulet to ensure the safe and healthy upbringing of your children and as a protective tool especially during the night.

ANGELIC ARMOR

The Angelic Armor was developed from ancient written amulets which are designed to protect the crucial stages of pregnancy, birth, and the upbringing of a child. The amulet shows a holy angel disguised as a powerful bird clutching a cradle underneath its magical and protective wings. The wings are inscribed with the names of protective angels Sanoi, Sansanoi, and Samangalf. The Hebrew writing on the cradle means “Child Protector”.

Use the Angelic Armor amulet to safeguard the vulnerable phases of pregnancy and birth as well as to ensure a peaceful and prosperous upbringing of your children.

EYES OF IMMUNITY

Eyes of Immunity were patterned after ancient archeological findings dating back more than 2000 years ago. Similar to the Eye Fender, this powerful amulet represents the cornea, the iris and the pupil of two protective eyes.

In ancient times, the drawing of the eyes were inscribed on personal items like clothes, jewelry and other objects for daily use. This was used as an armor to protect its owner and to deflect evil eyes from his path. The ancient text written on the amulet is the Hebrew word, “Mugan”, which translates to English as “Protected”.

Use the Eyes of Immunity to steer clear of hazards and threats, to block envious feelings or malicious intentions, and to keep oneself strong in body and mind.

LOVE SHIELD

The Love Shield is modeled from ancient pendants designed specifically to protect a pregnant woman and her newborn baby. The amulet shows one of the most notorious female demons in ancient history, Lilith. According to legends, she died without ever having her own children. She returned among the living as a wicked demon who became notorious for attacking women during childbirth and strangling newborns in their sleep.

The magical amulet reveals a degrading depiction of Lilith, all tied-up and completely constrained. Engraved on Lilith's chest is a powerful holy text in ancient Hebrew saying: “Protection for mother and child, may they stay safe, Amen”. In addition, the names of the four biblical partners are ingrained and tied to her hands: “Adam and Eve, Abraham and Sara, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob and Lea”. The four holy spouses represent the deep roots, the healthy growth and the continuity of life of every human being, especially that of a newborn child.

Use the Love Shield amulet to protect your pregnancy through its different stages, and to ensure a healthy and prosperous upbringing of your children.
